Racing May Be Introduced In New Jersey.

CLIFTON MEN APPEAL AGAIN

Big Handicap Declarations Due-Track Gossip.

It is reported from authoritative sources that another race bill will be introduced in ent week. The new bill, it is said, will legalize betting and racing for a period of thirty or forty days for each association. It is said the New Jersey Legislature during the presthat a quiet canvass of the Assembly and Senate shows that the majority of the members of the two bodies are in favor of such a bill. The same people are against legalizing racing with betting the year around, as was proposed in Assemblyman Parker's tills. The powerful hands of Dennis McLaughliu and William J. Thompson will be raised against the new bill, and the influence that these two possess is well known. Nevertheless, it must be remembered that two years ago just such a bill was introduced and varieties of Carpets and Floor passed by both branches of the Legislature despite the opposition of Guttenburg. Gov. Abbett then gave the bill its quietus. Ita at very limitation bill is introduced and passed it will mean the reopening of Monmouth Park and a brilliant season at Long Branch.

The managers of the Clifton -track, Messrs. George and William Engeman, Treasurer Battersby and Secretary Sass, who were convicted of keeping a disorderly house and sentenced to State Prison, have appealed from that decision to the Court of Errors and Appeals. This is the second appeal the John and James Dobson few days after their conviction to the Supreme Court, and the latter last week affirmed the decision of the lower Court.

Frankie Jordan, the light-weight jockey who was offered a retainer of $1,000 a year and regular pay for winning and losing mounts by Trainer Matt Burns, of Marcus Daly's stable, says that he will not accept. "Why," said the youngster, speaking of it the other day, "I can make more money than have accepted the offer. A light-weight boy has great opportunities before him when riding in the East for such a prominent stable as that of Marcus Daly.

The $125,000 that Senator Stanford received from the sale of Arion was divided up into 125 equal portions, to be given to that number of destitute boys to educate them at his new University. Where is there a nobler monument than that?

The stallion Nelson, while being driven on the streets of Waterville, Me., on Saturday shied at something and got one of his hind legs over the cross-bar of the sleigh. He went about forty feet on three legs and then fell to the ground. He was quickly unharnessed and assisted to his feet. While he went off limp-ing badly it is not believed that he is seri-ously injured.

Father Bill Daly, is about to become a bon-frace. It is said that he has purchased the fil-tated Park Central Hotel for on High street in Hartford at a cost of $18.000 and threatens to erect one of the linest hotels that Hartford has ever seen.

Pirst Turiman—Why do you call your horse Independence Day?
Second Turiman—Because in every race I enter him he comes in a glorious fourth.

SPORTING

The declarations from the big Spring Hand-leaps have not yet been made public. Though they were due on Saturday it is probable that the Secretaries or the Long Island and Brock-lyn Jockey Clubs are holding off for a day or two in order that belated declarations from the West may get in. As soon as the list is made public it is probable that several books will be opened.

Jockey Harry Ray has signed to ride for Col. J. E. Pepper, the Kentucky turfman. Col. Pepper has just learned that Ray was ruled off two years ago by Col. Clark for signing two contracts. It is probable, in view of the fact that Kay rode in the East last year and that the Board of Control has given him a license, that Kay will be reinstated by Col. Clark.

Thomas Maxwell, the owner of the horse Bill Nye, which has been running at the East St. Louis track, became noisy the other day when his horse was beaten and had to be fined $100 before he would keep quiet. He offered to match Bill Nye against any horse on the track for $1,000 a side, and Dan Honig immediately snapped him up, naming kyrie B, as his representative.

Vagabond and Blitzen had a famous finish in the fifth race at Guttenburg on Saturday. They raced head and head in the last furious, but just before reaching the wire Vagabond hade a wild boit to the outside and Blitzen won by a short head.

Jockey Horton rode a very apathetic finish on Ballarat on Saturday, and Judge Burke suspended him. Jockey Davis came in for a reprimand for his artistic riding of Graduate.

Shot by a Careless Marksman. Sineteen-year-old Peter Roth, a waiter in restaurant at 25516 Bowery, to-day had an ugly bullet wound in his head dressed at wwe Hospital. The injury was done by sa Miller, a waiter in the same place. IT COVERS THE WHOLE FIELD.
